Subject: Request for consideration of Resolutions at the Conclave – ‘The Way Forward’ on Religious Conversions in Punjab

Respected Sir,

Waheguru Ji Ka Khalsa, Waheguru Ji Ki Fateh

On the sacred occasion of the 350th Martyrdom Anniversary of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib, the International Sikh Confederation convened a Conclave titled, “The Way Forward” on Religious Conversions in Punjab. Eminent Sikh personalities from diverse fields – academia, administration, judiciary, journalism, and Sikh institutions, deliberated on the issue of religious conversions in Punjab and the following resolutions, related to Govt. of Punjab, are placed before your esteemed office for consideration and action:

3 The Government of Punjab to strengthen all the communities by promoting education, cultural engagement, and economic empowerment as safeguards against exploitation.

4 Any move towards an anti-conversion law stands fundamentally at odds with Sikh philosophy, which upholds freedom of conscience, dignity of choice, and respect for all faiths.

We therefore request your good-self to kindly keep in consideration the above Resolutions while framing policies for the people of Punjab.

Best Regards,

Birendra Kaur
