Subject: Concern Regarding Misleading Headline in The Tribune, 26th November, 2025

Dear Editor-in-Chief,
Greetings from International Sikh Confederation

This is with reference to our earlier communication No. ISC/NEWS/2025/010 dated 02.12.2025 concerning the misleading headline published in The Tribune on 26th November, 2025, titled "Op Sindoor legacy of Guru's valour."

Despite our detailed representation, we regret to note that your esteemed publication has neither responded nor issued an apology for this serious misrepresentation. Such silence is deeply disappointing and undermines the responsibility of the esteemed daily to uphold accuracy and respect, especially when reporting on matters of faith. And, failure to acknowledge and rectify such errors erodes public trust.

We reiterate that the headline in question distorted both the Prime Minister's words and the sacred legacy of the Sikh Gurus, thereby causing grave concern within the community.

Ethics demand that The Tribune should issue a public apology for the said headline.

We trust that your publication will act without further delay.

Best Regards,

Dr Birendra Kaur
