

Brief Profile of Kanwal Pal Singh – General Secretary, International Sikh Confederation

Kanwal Pal Singh is a distinguished academic administrator with over four decades of service across premier institutions in Punjab. His career spans key leadership roles including Registrar, Controller of Examinations, Finance Officer (Officiating), and Deputy Registrar at the Central University of Punjab, Guru Ravidas Ayurved University, Baba Farid University of Health Sciences, and Sant Longowal Institute of Engineering & Technology.

He holds postgraduate degrees in Public Administration, English, and Sociology, complemented by diplomas in Office Organization and Public Enterprise Management, and specialized training in Competency Building.

In his current role as General Secretary of the International Sikh Confederation, he ensures the organization remains a leading voice on Panthic issues, fostering collaboration with governments, global institutions, and Sikh bodies to elevate Sikh contributions worldwide.